

I firmly believe that the Morse Requirement is no longer needed, or necessary. I liken it to "Knowing How to Tear Down Your V-8 Engine" before you're licensed to drive more than 100 miles from your home. What's the purpose? Want to keep people away from getting into Ham Radio? Then keep the code. Thanks for listening!